Ищу журнал Q1, который предлагает ускоренную публикацию

Привет всем,

Я активно ищу возможность опубликовать свои исследования в журнале ранга Q1/Q2, но у меня есть небольшие временные ограничения. Кто-нибудь знает о доверительных журналах Q1/Q2 (индексируемых в Scopus/SCI), которые предлагают ускоренный рецензирование и публикацию — желательно в течение 4–6 недель?

Я открыт для журналов в областях ИИ, кибербезопасности, автоматизации QA или программной инженерии, но буду признателен за любые предложения, независимо от области.

Если у вас есть опыт быстрой публикации в журналах высшей категории — или вы знаете о таких, которые открыты и этичны в предоставлении таких услуг — пожалуйста, поделитесь. Платный APC подходит (предпочтительно по подписке, так как это бесплатно и у меня нет финансирования), если журнал легитимен.

Название статьи: К адаптивной AI/ML-основанной QA-рамке с интеграцией HRM для инклюзивных и безопасных медицинских решений в условиях edge.

Спасибо заранее!

Да, несмотря на свою ненадежность, у них есть журналы с высоким импакт-фактором.

Looking for a Q1 journal that offers accelerated publication

I'm actively seeking to publish my research in a Q1/Q2 journal, but I have some time constraints. Does anyone know of any trusted Q1/Q2 journals (indexed in Scopus/SCI) that offer expedited review and publication—preferably within 4-6 weeks?

Probably only from the dubious publisher MDPI. :) Yes, despite their unreliability, they have journals with high impact factors.

Thank you for your answer. What is suspicious about them, what are they doing?

They publish articles from anyone, regardless of the reviewers' assessments.

Dear Editorial Team,

I hope you are doing well.

I am reaching out on behalf of Aimlay Pvt. Ltd., a well-established academic support organization working with a large and active network of researchers, scholars, and institutions. We consistently generate a significant volume of publication-ready manuscripts across multiple disciplines.

We are currently looking to partner with selective journals where we can directly contribute to increasing high-quality submissions and overall publication output. Based on our assessment, your journal appears to be a strong fit for a strategic collaboration.

Through this partnership, we can:

- Deliver a consistent pipeline of quality manuscripts ready for peer review
- Support and co-develop Special Issues to boost visibility and citations
- Enhance your journal's reach in emerging research markets

We are actively collaborating with multiple journals and prioritizing partners who are ready to scaling their publication volume while maintaining quality standards.

If this aligns with your current goals, we would prefer to initiate discussions at the earliest to outline a mutually beneficial model.

Thank you for your time, and we look forward to your response.

Dear Dr. Aleksander Śładkowski,

Editors of the Transport Problems International Scientific Journal,

I'm Alex Zvansky, I represent the Big Time Scientific Platform, an academic coordination initiative working with research teams and universities across several countries.

At the moment we are coordinating a structured collection of peer-review-ready manuscripts prepared by affiliated research groups across multiple disciplines including engineering, life sciences, applied sciences and social research.

We are currently exploring suitable journals that may be interested in hosting a thematic collection or special issue containing a group of coordinated submissions prepared under unified editorial standards.

All manuscripts undergo internal academic preparation before submission, including:

- formatting according to journal requirements
- reference and citation standardization
- initial scientific screening
- compliance checks regarding ethics and originality

In this regard, we would be grateful to discuss the possibility of one of the following formats with your journal:

- a Thematic Article Collection distributed across several issues
- a Special Issue coordinated with guest editorial support
- or a structured group submission managed under the supervision of your editorial office

Our role is purely organizational - ensuring that manuscripts submitted to the journal are well prepared and aligned with the scope of the publication.

Scopus Discontinued Journals List

Why Are Journals Discontinued from Scopus?

- Citation manipulation — coercive self-citation, citation cartels, or rings.
- Quality decline — deteriorating peer review or editorial standards.
- Scope drift — publishing outside their declared subject area.
- Publication irregularities — missed issues, irregular frequency.
- Lack of international diversity in authors, editors or reviewers.
- Plagiarism / research-ethics concerns identified through audits.

There are currently 853 journals on this list.

As an example, 7 journals were excluded from the Scopus database in January 2026, 7 in February 2026, 16 in March 2026, and 11 in April 2026.

Conclusions

The dissemination of scientific knowledge is currently receiving great attention, and this is expected to only increase in the future.

The open access status of a journal has a very significant influence on this matter.

A key role in this is played by the assessment of individual researchers, as well as budgetary organizations, based on the citation rates of their articles.

The correct choice of journal is extremely important in matters of the publication activity of scientists.

One should be very careful when receiving offers to publish in a journal that has a dubious reputation.

Don't rely on information contained in publication proposal letters. It's important to first analyze the situation with a particular journal or conference.

Thank you for attention!
Děkuji za pozornost!
Dziękuję za uwagę!
